Dear Dr. Nguyen Thi Huong,

Greetings from ASEAN Secretariat.

I am writing to extend our hearty congratulations on the 75th Anniversary of the Viet Nam's Statistics Foundation. The establishment of the General Statistics Office (GSO) in 6 May 1946 sets the foundation for further statistical development in Viet Nam, which has since grown from strength to strength.

Since the establishment of the ASEAN Community Statistical System (ACSS) in 2011, Viet Nam has been contributing actively to strengthen statistical cooperation in ASEAN. GSO, supported by other relevant agencies, has been playing important roles in strengthening ASEAN institutions for statistical cooperation, improving the quality and availability of ASEAN statistics, as well as narrowing the capacity gap among ASEAN Member States.

On behalf of the ASEAN Secretariat, I would like to express our sincere appreciation to the support of GSO, along with the hope for stronger cooperation and closer collaboration moving forward.

Yours sincerely,
